V. COMMITTEE UPDATES
   a. Legislative Affairs Committee
      Motion to approve minutes (with exec make minor changes) by ML, seconded by MH. Approved unanimously. Presenting the changes to the bylaws to the committee. MB would like to motion to accept the changes to the bylaws, succeeded by a motion to table the discussion. This would allow the changes to go into effect immediately after the vote per the bylaws. MB motions to approve the LAC recommended changes to the bylaws. Seconded by ML. Objection by MH, print copy is slightly unreadable. Will refer to electronic copy that was sent out. MH withdraws his objection, provided that next week’s copy is fully readable. Approved unanimously.
MB and Phil lead board through detailed review of LAC changes to bylaws. See amended document for changes.

Chris: I’m just seeing these today, but they look really well put together. I like the changes.

MH: From a sustainability side, one of the things that’s nice about this format is that the single most out of date part of the bylaws is now updating automatically, the table of contents. Motion to postpone consideration of the bylaws until our meeting on September 4th at 7pm. Seconded by David. Approved 10-0-0.

Phil: Thank you MB for helping to lead this effort to review and to MH for formatting the whole document and helping to edit the whole thing. It’s a pain in the tushie.

Election forum

MB says stuff

Motion to approve of RSG hosting an election forum this fall. The committee is authorized to prepare for the meeting … Seconded by Chris. Approved 10-0-0.

b. Student Life Committee

Phil: On your penultimate and final pages of the packet you will find a sense of the board expressing the sentiment of the student body regarding the proposed Munger graduate housing complex. Basically what will happen if the board deems to approve this resolution is that we will go ahead with our town hall fora where we will invite folks from the Division of Student Affairs as well as the architect to present the project to a more representative sampling of the student body. Based on the comments at the fora, we will have a binding resolution early next month. Speed really of the essence.

MB: I move that the board approve of sense of the board F-13-01. Seconded by Chris Tom.

MB: Objects with amendments:
- Change title from Board Resolution to Sense of the Board
- Line 14, Inter-disciplinary to trans-disciplinary
- Line 21, striking widely disagreed with the proposed design replaced with agreed that the proposed design will not achieve its goal of encouraging trans-disciplinary connections among its residents, and will not be attractive to or affordable for most graduate students
• Department of Residential Life to University Housing's Residence Education division
• Change Michael Benson to Phillip Saccone
• Strike “Graduate Student Body”

M. Lang: Moving citation on line 15 to reference minutes from the regents. Friendly to the mover and the seconder.

David: Please note that I’m in Division 2.

Mike Hand: It seems that the wording for this resolution is talking about desirability of the housing complex for graduate students. It hints around needs but doesn’t explicitly do so. I don’t have a specific change, but I would have put it on the whereas clause that we struck on line 21. I’m going to wait until the Board Resolution on this point.

Dave: Should we be concerned that professional students aren’t involved here?

Phil: Yes. Our interests are aligned and I’ve reached out to the leadership of the professional student governments. We’re going to be working with them as we go forward.

MB: Motion to grant the execs editorial authority to make non-substantive changes as well as to transmit to the board a final version. Also, I move to call the question. Approved unanimously.

Roll call vote on F-13-01

AMS Ice Cream Social

Call To Order: August 15, 2013.

Chuky: The funding application on the table is for the Association of Multicultural Scientists (AMS) Ice Cream Social. It is a welcome social event for incoming Biomedical Science students, and is open to all AMS members and Biomedical Science students and associates. There is an expected attendance of around 100 participants, all graduate students, and the requested funds serve to subsidize food costs.

I am in support of funding the AMS Ice Cream Social at a level of $60.

Phil: The application is pretty straightforward and the event is fits our funding guidelines. I support funding the event for the full amount $60 (motion).

Kaitlin: I will abstain from this discussion as I am a member of this organization.

David: Support level of $60 is agreeable with me as well (seconded).

VOTE

Yes to $60: Phil, David, Yiting, Ram
No: 0
Abstentions: Kaitlin

Motion carries for funding at a level of $60.

ADJOURNMENT August 19, 2013.
UPSA Expanded Horizons

Call To Order: August 24, 2013.

Chuky: The current funding application is for the UPSA Expanded Horizons event. It is a travel event to Toronto where Urban Planning students experience different urban environments and connect with urban planning professionals. The trip consists of various site visits in the Toronto area. Approximately 60 students, primarily from Urban Planning or a related dual degree program, are expected to participate in the event.

Historically, this event is and has been partially funded primarily through fundraising efforts and grants from the Urban Planning Department. The attending students pay between $175-$200 to cover the remaining costs. UPSA is requesting (first-time) funds from RSG to help subsidize travel/lodging costs of the event, and reduce the individual costs to the attendees.

I do not have a specific recommendation for the funding level of this event.

Kaitlin: I'm not sure if this is the first time they've applied (I seem to remember a similar event coming through before for Milwaukee). Anyway, it seems like an event we would be happy to support, but I don't see it being feasible to fund anywhere near their level of what they would like.

Given that it is a high-cost event for the participants as well, I would motion for funding at a level of $500 for lodging.

Yiting: Second.

David: I'm in favor of $500 for this event as well. That would amount to around <= $10/student, depending upon participation.

Phil: In general, this seems like a wonderful program. However, remember that the bylaws ask us to consider more favorably events that are: a) likely to benefit the graduate student body as a whole, b) open to all Rackham Students, and c) held on campus. This applications falls short in those areas. $2500 is not something we could afford even if the event met all of our requirements. I think $500 is the absolute maximum. I would encourage people to review article IX of the funding guidelines.

I motion to fund this event at the $200 level.

Ram: I vote NO to any amount of funding. Sure it might help some of them to get great experience, but the money in my opinion can be used in other cheaper events with a larger audience.

Chuky: I share some of the concerns Phil expressed regarding the application and the event.

Kaitlin: I'll second Phil's motion for $200.
David: I'll also change my recommendation to $200.

ADJOURNMENT August 27, 2013 @ 5:00pm.
SPhD Seminar Series

Call To Order: August 24, 2013.

Chuky: The current funding application is for the SPhD Professional Development Seminar Series. It is a recurring event open to all doctoral graduate students, but targeted towards students in the various School of Public Health departments. The seminars will cover a variety of topics relevant to graduate students (GSI/GSRAs, best research practices, grant writing, etc.) as detailed in the application. There is an expected attendance of approximately 20 students per seminar, with 6-7 sessions planned for the Fall Term. The requested funds serve to cover speaker honorarium and food.

This is a new event by the SPhD organization, and thus we have no precedence for the amount of funding given. The general focus and outreach of the seminar series match the funding guidelines in our bylaws.

The application details their plans and requested funds for the 2013-2014 academic year. Most of their speakers for the Fall term have been confirmed, though none have been confirmed for the Winter term. I am in favor of supporting the SPhD Seminar Series up to a level of $300, with the recommendation that they re-apply to RSG and other funding sources for the Winter term.

Kaitlin: This looks like a great, recurring event of the type we generally like to support. Given that it will likely target only about 30 students, and those 30 students will likely be the same ones at each seminar (with some overlap). This is also a new series for the organization and they're not looking to use any ("0%") of their own funds for it. Finally, their food costs are $500... for 30 people for many events. I'm certain this could be worked around in their budget if needed.

I motion to fund at a level of $200 to cover speaker honorarium with the invite to reapply again in the fall.

David: Looks like they are requesting a total of $700 ($200 towards a $300 honorarium and $500 to cover food).

I'm fine with between $200 and $300 depending upon the RSG stance on funding food for seminars. I'll second the $200 motion.

Yiting: If this application includes all 13 seminars, I will consider support partial amount of food expense. We have previously approved applications for about $75 for one seminar.

Phil: I vote yes for $200 and I agree with the recommendation to reapply in the fall.

Ram: I make a motion to increase it to $300 towards food or honorarium. Its exactly the kind of activities that I would like to see RSG funds get directed to. (This motion was not seconded)

Chuky: We seem to all be on the same page to at least fund the $200 for the Speaker Honorarium. As far as we know (and as detailed in the application) the organization has no other confirmed funding for the nascent seminar series. For event of this nature, that strongly aligns with our principles for funding, and is also in the startup phase, I think it is meaningful for RSG to provide additional funds (at our discretion of course) to help get the program off the ground. This need not be the case every year; should the series become successful, more funding avenues (perhaps departmental) will become available for SPhD and RSG can scale back its support appropriately.

Kaitlin: I'll modify my motion to a level of $250, $200 used for speaker honorarium.

David: I'll second Kaitlin's motion for $250 specifying $200 be used for the honorarium.
